

Dallas Morning News, The (TX)

December 21, 2004

HOLBROOK JAMES

HOLBROOK, JAMES ("Jimmy") WESLEY, JR., born December 12, 1951, and passed away December 12, 2004, at the age of 53. Jimmy was a best friend to many, loved Jesus, his family, music and the UT Longhorns. He was a graduate from Sunset High School, a paint contractor and life-long Texan. The family thanks the hard work of the Dallas PD, friends and volunteers who helped locate Jimmy and most especially the United Response Search and Rescue Team for this closure. Thanks Dana, Sheila and Russell. You are our Godsend. In lieu of flowers the family request donations to be sent to the URSAR Team @ www.ursarteamn.org. Good-by Jimmy! We love and miss you. Jimmy was preceded in death by his mother, Loretta Hughes Holbrook & brother, Hal Wilson Holbrook. Survivors include his wife, Diane Holbrook; daughters: Stacy Holbrook & Holli Cook; sons: James Holbrook III, Brian Holbrook & Joseph Holbrook; father: James W. Holbrook, Sr. & Step-Mother: Bobbie Sue Holbrook; sisters: Karen Piper & Diane Medina. Memorial services 2:00 P.M. Thursday, December 23, 2004, in the Grove Hill Funeral Home Chapel with Pastor David Jenkins officiating. Dignity Memorial Grove Hill 3920 Samuell Blvd. Dallas (214) 388-8887